TRAVEL ABROAD

(761) Academic Travel Abroad has announced its third annual Russian Winter Study Tour December 26 - January 10, 1980. The all-inclusive price of $1,045 from New York provides first-class Intourist arrangements in Moscow, Leningrad, and Tallinn, with two final days in Helsinki. Many extras, including gala New Year's Eve party, troika ride, theaters, farewell banquet. Transportation by Finnair jet, overnight train, and ferry.

ATA also has a new winter study tour: Warsaw-Cracow-Prague, also scheduled for December 26-January 10, 1980. Excursions, theatres, and a New Year's Eve party at the popular Polish resort of Zakopane in the Tatras. Again, first-class accommodations and all meals are provided in the all-inclusive price of $1,145 from New York.

Tour leaders will be Jerry and Alice Ervin (of OSU's Slavic Department and Academic Travel Abroad, respectively) for the Soviet trip, and Sandi Mayewski (Ph.D. candidate at OSU and instructor at the University of New Hampshire) for the Eastern European trip. Organizers of 15-person groups will travel at no expense, and ATA will again award some scholarships, but deadlines are rapidly approaching. The airfare payment is due by November 15, 1979. For further information, contact Alice Ervin, 944 Farnham Road, Columbus, OH 43220 (614) 457-2621, or Academic Travel Abroad, 1346 Connecticut Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. (202) 785-3412.

TOUR SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

(762) Academic Travel Abroad, organizer of the Russian Winter III study tour abroad described above, will be awarding three half scholarships worth $525 apiece, which will lower the cost of the 16-day tour to $520 for the three recipients.

Deadline for submission of the complete application (personal qualifications form, one-page essay, and two supporting recommendations) is October 26, 1979. Brochures about the study tour and scholarship application forms may be obtained from ATA representative Alice Ervin (614) 457-2621.

IREX ANNOUNCES NEW COMPETITION

(763) The International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX) has announced it has available ten openings for the one-month summer language school at the University of Sofia for Americans wishing to improve their knowledge of Bulgarian. This seminar will be held in August, 1980. Application deadline is December 1, 1979. For more information, contact IREX, 655 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10017.

EXHIBIT GUIDES IN U.S.S.R. WANTED

(764) The International Communication Agency is seeking people with a good background in the visual or performing arts, who also speak Russian, to serve as guides on an artistic/cultural exhibition which will travel in the Soviet Union in 1980-81. The theme of this exhibit will deal with the visual and performing arts in America and with New York City as a cultural center.

Exhibit guides serve for approximately seven-eight months. Specialists and professionals in the arts are also needed to serve for shorter periods of time, usually ranging from one week to a month.

For more information, write Exhibit Guide Recruitment, Attention: "Arts" Exhibit, U.S. International Communications Agency, 1776 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D.C. 20547.

UNDERGRADUATE INTERNATIONAL STUDIES PROGRAM GRANTS

(765) Applications are invited for new projects under the Undergraduate International Studies Program of the U.S. Office of Education.

This program issues awards to institutions of higher education; consortium applications are eligible but must be submitted by a member institution. The purpose of the awards is to assist institutions to initiate or strengthen international and global components in their instructional program.

It is estimated that approximately $594,000 will be available for the Undergraduate International Studies Program in FY 1980 to support 12 new projects. Awards will be made to individual institutions of higher education and to consortia of such institutions. Single institution awards will average from $40,000 to $80,000; consortia awards will range from $50,000 to $100,000.

Authority for this program is contained in Title VI section 601(a) of the National Defense Act of 1958, as amended.

Application forms and program information packages are expected to be ready for mailing by October 5, 1979. They may be obtained by writing to the International Studies Branch, Division of International Education, U.S. Office of Education (Room 3671, Regional Office Building 3, 7th and D Streets, S.W., Washington, D.C.)

BRADFORD STUDIES ON YUGOSLAVIA

(766) The Postgraduate School of Yugoslav Studies of the University of Bradford intends, in the near future, to commence publication of a series of occasional papers called the Bradford Studies on Yugoslavia.

Bradford Studies on Yugoslavia will be available at £1 per issue. Any individual or institution interested in subscribing or in receiving further information is invited to write to the Secretary, Postgraduate School of Yugoslav Studies, University of Bradford, Bradford, BD7 1DP, England.

INSTITUTE OF MODERN RUSSIAN CULTURE

(767) The Institute of Modern Russian Culture (IMRC) at Blue Lagoon, Texas invites inquiries about its activities as well as new members.

The primary aim of IMRC is to preserve and propagate the historical and esthetic values of Russian culture, especially of the 18th through 20th centuries. Of particular interest to the IMRC are the artistic achievements of Russia, and examination of these will be undertaken from various standpoints, formal, interdisciplinary, and social. The IMRC strives to maintain an apolitical stance and to serve as an international center for bona fide scholars of all ideological persuasions.

For further information, contact the IMRC at: P.O. Box 7217, Austin, Texas 78712. Telephone (512) 345-5123.
